W: Hello, this is Karen Smith, the principal of Sunnyfield High School. I would like to inform all staff about an important plan for next week's Parent-Teacher Meeting. Due to limited parking on campus, all teachers and staff should park at the nearby community center on Wednesday. It is only a five-minute walk from the school. This plan will ensure that parents attending the meeting have easy access to parking. Your cooperation will greatly assist in making this event a smooth and successful experience. Thank you in advance for your cooperation with the parking arrangements.

2. 대화를 듣고, 남자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Lisa. What are you looking at?

W: I'm planning to buy this eco-bag. Isn't it cute?

M: It is, but don't you already have several eco-bags?

W: Yes, I do. But this one is limited edition!

M: Well, instead of buying more bags, wouldn't it be better to use the ones you already have?

W: I know what you mean. But I thought eco-bags were environmentally-friendly.

M: That's true, but the point is even eco-bags need to be reused as long as possible.

W: Oh, that makes sense.

M: If you use one eco-bag for a long time, it will be much better for the environment.

W: Okay. I'll try to use the bags I already have.

3. 다음을 듣고, 여자가 하는 말의 요지로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Hi, everyone! Welcome back to Smart Study Tips. Has your mind ever gone blank during a test, even though you studied very hard? Here's a simple but effective tip. Explaining what you've learned out loud can help you remember better. Just pretend you're a teacher and explain what you've learned in your own words. You can even talk to yourself in front of a mirror. Try it. You'll be surprised how well it works!

4. 대화를 듣고, 그림에서 대화의 내용과 일치하지 않는 것을 고르시오.

M: Hey, Lucy! Look at this recycling poster. What do you notice first?

W: The title at the top really stands out. It says “RECYCLE FOR A BETTER FUTURE.”

M: Right! And below it, there’s the big recycling symbol with three arrows forming a triangle.

W: That makes it clear that this is about recycling. On the top arrow, there are plastic bottles.

M: Yeah, there are! Oh, look! Below the trees, there is paper, which students often waste.

W: Right. And beside one of the bottom arrows, there are three cans. Cans are an important item to recycle.

M: Exactly. Look at this. There’s an Earth holding a flower. That’s a fun way to remind us that we can make a difference.

W: I agree! This poster does a great job of promoting recycling.

W: I ordered them yesterday and they will be delivered this evening.

M: Good. What else do we need to do?

W: Oh! I guess we also need sheets to protect the ground from paint.

M: I've already picked them up from the art center. Did you buy snacks for the volunteers?

W: Yes, I did. One last thing. Do we need to remind all volunteers to bring extra clothes? Their clothes might get dirty.

M: I think we do. I'll send a text message to them right away.

W: Perfect. The residents will love the finished walls!

M: Sure! Adult bikes are 15 dollars per hour, and children's bikes are 10 dollars per hour. How long will you be renting them for?

W: We'll need them for two hours.

M: Got it. So, that's one adult bike for two hours and one child bike for two hours.

W: That's right. We want to rent helmets too.

M: Bike rentals include helmets for safety. You should wear them while riding the bikes in the park.

W: That's too bad. You don't have your part-time job this weekend, right?

M: No, I've got the weekend off.

W: Hmm, then maybe you're busy with some schoolwork?

M: No, I already finished my big assignments this week.

W: So, why can't you come?

M: I'm going to my cousin's wedding and the place is really far. It'll take almost the whole day to get there and back.

W: What do you enjoy doing?

W: Really? Wasn't it so hard?

M: Not that much. I spent money on things I really needed.

W: Why did you decide to do that?

M: At first, it was just to save money. But it also made me realize that I have wasted money on too many extra things.

W: Oh, I see. So it's about cutting out unnecessary spending?
